7. Rules of operation of the Jury: The jury shall deliberate by means of a nominal vote in accordance with the adopted and published selection criteria, and abstentions will not be allowed.
- 7.1. The jury meetings will be documented in written minutes, containing a summary of what has taken place, as well as the votes cast by each of the members and the respective grounds, being provided to the candidates whenever requested.
8. Approval on absolute merit:
- 8.1. The jury must decide on the absolute merit of the candidates, based on the merit of the global curriculum of the candidates in the scientific area for which the tender is open.
- 8.2. The decision of exclusion on absolute merit is notified to the candidates, by email, for the purpose of holding the hearing of interested parties.
- 8.3. Once the deadline for the exercise of the right of hearing the interested parties has expired, the jury analyses the allegations presented and, if it keeps the exclusion decision, notifies the excluded candidates by email with delivery receipt, subsequently beginning the application of the selection methods to the admitted candidates.
9. Method(s) and evaluation criteria: The selection method consists of a Scientific and Curricular Path Assessment (SCPA) with a weighting of 90%, and a Public Presentation Session (PPS) with a weighting of 10%.
- All candidates, approved on absolute merit, are subjected to the evaluation of the scientific and curricular path to be carried out according to the criteria and weights defined in point [9.3. and 9.4, if applicable]. However, only the 4 candidates approved and best positioned in the ranking resulting from the evaluation of the scientific and curricular path will be admitted to the Public Presentation Session.
- 9.1. The evaluation of the Scientific and Curricular Path Assessment (SCPA) focuses on the relevance, quality and timeliness of:

- a) The scientific, technological, cultural or artistic production of the last five years considered most relevant by the candidate for the area of recruitment and applied research activities, or based on practice, considered to have the greatest impact by the candidate for the area of recruitment;
  - b) The activities of extension and dissemination of knowledge, namely in the context of the promotion of the cultural and scientific practices considered most relevant by the candidate, and activities for the management of science, technology and innovation programs, or experience in observation and monitoring of the scientific and technological system.
- 9.2. The five-year period mentioned in the preceding paragraph may be increased by the jury, if requested by the candidate, and when justified on grounds of suspension of scientific activity for socially protected reasons such as parental leave, prolonged serious illness, and other situations of unavailability for work that are legally protected.
- 9.3. In the Evaluation of the Scientific and Curricular Path Assessment (SCPA) the following parameters and evaluation criteria are considered with the respective weights:

AQ - Academic Qualifications

Assessment of the candidate's area of study: Ph.D. in Economics, AQ = 100 points; Ph.D. in a related scientific fields, AQ = 60 points;

STP - Scientific and Technological Production

The evaluation of the relevance, quality and timeliness of the scientific course. Evaluation of the scientific production (SP) of the last five years. The classification of the scientific production is obtained by the formula:  $SP = 0,6QE + 0,4QA$ .

Quantitative evaluation (QE): publications in Economics, or related fields, in journals indexed in the Journal of Citation reports, QE = up to 100 points; other publications, namely Working Papers, in Economics, or related fields, QE = up to 60 points.

Qualitative Assessment (QA): candidates must provide copies of up to 2 articles/publications that they consider most relevant, QA= up to 100 points.

REMA - Research, Extension and Management Activities

The activities of applied or practice-based research, as well as extension and management, developed during the last five years, are evaluated. This parameter includes:

- (i) Participation in R&D projects and services, in the area of preference;
- (ii) Participation in international research networks, in the field of Economics, proved by joint papers or research documents;
- (iii) Participation in activities of science management and dissemination of knowledge, including the organization of conferences, symposia and scientific cooperation activities.

Activities in the field of Economics, REMA = up to 100 points; activities in related fields, REMA = up to 60 points; activities in other fields, REMA = 0 points.

ML - Motivation Letter

For this evaluation the candidate must present the Motivation Letter describing the relevance of the scientific trajectory to the profile and his/her personal career goals: ML = up to 100 points.

RP - Research Project

The candidate must submit a Research Project, with a maximum of two pages, describing his/her area of research and the relevance of the proposed research activities for the Centre for Research in Economics and Management. RP = up to 100 points.

The final classification of the SCPA is obtained by the following formula:

$$\text{SCPA} = 0,2\text{AQ} + 0,3\text{STP} + 0,1\text{REMA} + 0,1\text{ML} + 0,3\text{RP}$$

- 9.4. The Public Presentation Session (PPS), with the maximum duration of 60 minutes, will be classified on a numerical scale from 0 to 100 points, applying the following parameters and criteria evaluation, represented in the formula PPS = 0.3M + 0.7GA:
- a) Motivation of the candidate (M)
  - b) Global assessment (GA)
- 9.5. Candidates with an absolute merit score lower than 60 points in one of the two methods (SCPA or PPS) are excluded, as well as candidates who have not attended, have given up or, although approved, have not been included in the tranches used.
- 9.6. The valuation of the evaluation parameters is expressed on the numerical scale from 0 to 100 points.
- 9.7. The classification of each candidate is obtained by the average of the classifications of each one of the members of the jury. In case of a draw, the Chairman of the jury will make a final decision to untie the applicants.

10. Order of candidates: The order of the candidates must be based on the evaluation made according to the evaluation criteria described in this notice.
  - 10.1. After completion of the application of the evaluation criteria, the jury will draw up an orderly list of successful candidates with their respective classification.
  - 10.2. The final classification of the candidates is expressed in the numerical scale of 0 to 100 points; the classification being obtained through a weighted average.
11. Participation of interested parties and decision: The final ordering is notified to the candidates, by email with receipt of delivery of the notification, allowing them to pronounce for the purpose of preliminary hearing of the interested parties, pursuant to article 121 and following of the Code of Administrative Procedure, applying, with the necessary adaptations, the provisions of article 31 of the Regulation.
  - 11.1. After the hearing of the interested parties, the jury analyses the allegations presented and approves the final ordering list of the successful candidates. Within 90 days, from the deadline for submission of the applications, the final decisions of the jury are given.
  - 11.2. The period referred to in the previous number may be extended when the high number of candidates and or the special complexity of the competition justifies it.
  - 11.3. The final decision of the jury is approved by the Rector of Universidade do Minho, who also decides on the hiring.
12. Publication of results: The list of admitted and excluded candidates, as well as the final ranking list of the successful candidates, are published on Universidade do Minho's website, and the candidates are notified by email with receipt of delivery of the notification.
13. The present tender is exclusively designated to fill the indicated vacancies and may be terminated up to the homologation of the final ranking list of candidates, expiring with the respective occupation of the jobs on offer.
14. The present announcement was approved by the jury of the tender at its meeting on 28/01/2021, according to the approved minutes of the said meeting.
15. Non-discrimination and equal access policy: Universidade do Minho actively promotes a policy of non-discrimination and equal access, so that no candidate may be privileged, benefited, harmed or deprived of any right or exempt from any duty due, namely, to ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, economic situation, education, social origin or condition, genetic heritage, reduced working capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, territory of origin, language, religion, political or ideological convictions and trade union membership.
  - 15.1. Pursuant to section h) of article 9 of the Constitution of the Portuguese Republic, the Public Administration, as an employer, actively promotes a policy of equal opportunities for men and women in accessing employment and professional advancement, scrupulously any form of discrimination.
